- Falcons are you ready to PINK OUT? Next week will be our celebration for PEOPLE IN NEED OF KINDNESS. Starting Monday, FCCLA will be encouraging everyone to consider spreading KINDNESS throughout our school and community. Throughout the week, there will be opportunities to have some fun and joy here at WCHS. We hope everyone will join in. For Monday, you will be forgiven if you forgot to get out of your jammies. Yes, Monday is PAJAMA DAY. Be sure to be school appropriate. Also, there will be a small, plastic duck hidden some where in the high school. If you find it, contact the office, and a prize will be yours. We encourage all to look for joy in everyday things...like looking for the duck...small things make a difference.
